Literary Reflections

Lengthy experts from twentieth-century criticism of the principal British and American authors from the Middle Ages to the end of the Victorian era

Chicorel Index to Poetry in Anthologies and Collections--retrospective

Gordon Teskey restores Edmund Spenser to prominence, revealing his epic The Faerie Queene as a grand, improvisatory project on human nature. Teskey compares Spenser to Milton, an avowed follower. While Milton's rigid ideology is now stale, Spenser's allegories remain vital, inviting new questions and visions, heralding a constantly changing future.

Culture and Values: A Survey of the Western Humanities, Volume 2

The ninth edition of CULTURE AND VALUES: A SURVEY OF THE HUMANITIES introduces students to the history of humankind through the lens of the humanities -- language and literature, art and architecture, music, philosophy, and religion -- from the dawn of civilization to the contemporary world. CULTURE AND VALUES encourages students to place their own backgrounds and beliefs in context and consider how understanding both their own and other heritages contributes to becoming a citizen of the world in the 21st century. Coauthor Lois Fichner-Rathus continues to bring her pedagogical expertise, clear conversational style, and love of teaching to this beautifully written and illustrated book. New and revised features encourage students to draw comparisons and connections as well as engage their critical thinking skills. Chapter previews, timelines, glossaries, and "Big Picture" reviews provide consistent pedagogical support throughout the text to help students master the material. ### The Middle Ages. The Sixteenth Century. The Seventeenth Century. The Restoration and the Eighteenth Century

Some of the most important authors in British poetry left their mark on literature before 1600, including Geoffrey Chaucer, Edmund Spenser, and, of course, William Shakespeare. "The Facts On File Companion to British Poetry before 1600" is an encyclopedic guide to British poetry from the beginnings to the year 1600, featuring approximately 600 entries ranging in length from 300 to 2,500 words.

Culture and Values: A Survey of the Humanities

This anthology is intended for students who are being introduced to poetry at the college level. The introductions to the poems and poets are brief.

The Adventures in Literature Program: Adventures in English literature [gr. 12]

This text is a guide to poems written during the Victorian and contemporary periods. There are explications covering Matthew Arnold to William Wordsworth, W.H. Auden to W.B. Yeats and many others. Sources include books, journals, articles, and anthologies.

Amoretti

Spenser Newsletter

This work analyzes Spenser's setting of the entire Amoretti courtship against a backdrop of sacred time and his efforts to demonstrate the interpenetration of the divine and the human. The eighty-nine sonnets are shown to be sequential in their complex pattern of balanced themes, structural frameworks, developing images, and clusters of etymological wordplay.
