400 Fortnite Tips and Tricks

Have you ever wondered why some Fortnite players are significantly better than everybody else? How do they manage to have way more fun at the game than other people? Have you ever wondered if there's a little secret here and there that they know, that you don't? After authoring the best-selling books on League of Legends, I established myself as a straightforward, to the point type of author, who absolutely loves producing information-dense content that serves people well. My books on League have sold thousands of copies and continue to help numerous players improve at the game. As of recently, I decided to turn all of my focus and attention towards a much needed new challenge. So I put a lot of time and effort into coming up with a comprehensive guide on Fortnite, and finally - here it is. I've done my absolute best to make it significantly better and more thorough than any other book you will find on the subject, which I am sure many readers will appreciate. Even though Fortnite is still a relatively new game, its player base is quickly evolving. To be the last man standing in such a competitive environment, you need to be guided by a solid set of principles and game knowledge. And that's what you're going to get in this book - plenty of applicable strategies that you can use, refine and apply to your own gameplay.
