TYRANID PSYKERS are not affected. Was formerly listed at 8" in the index but has been changed for the codex. The addition of a whopping 10" to this rule is understandably quite a big deal now that its range is long enough to mess with Smite spammers. Frankly, a rule often forgotten in the 7th Edition days due to how infrequently it came in use.

Looking over how units in the Tyranid codex interact with the 9th edition rules, there are a few instances where somewhat useful abilities are given new life. Psychic Overload is one of those abilities, as it allows you to make a Fall Back move and inflict mortal wounds in the Psychic phase without actually casting a power. In a world where psykers now have to get stuck in to continue to use

Maybe we'll get a new Genestealer box when we get either a Tyranid or GSC codex next. However, as much as I do want a new Tyranid book personally, I don't think either book is on deck for early 2021. Again, we've seen no teasers for either army. And honestly, I'd rather wait to get a new codex later and maybe get the same amount of love the Necrons got with their revamp. More than

The new codex sees several Tyranids units gain powerful new abilities and biomorphs or, in the case of the Carnifex, new subspecies. There are myriad tweaks, adjustments and changes designed to diversify the Tyranids and put every unit on an even keel, and we thought five units were worth a special spotlight:
